

Join the Marblehead Festival of Arts Internship Program!

Marblehead Festival of Arts seeks self-motivated, energetic high school juniors, seniors, and college students passionate about all forms of art, excited to gain hands-on experience in marketing, operations, or business development within a dynamic nonprofit organization.

Intern with the historic Marblehead Festival of Arts in its 58th season, from May to July, offering 10 hours per week with remote and in-person opportunities.

Positions available in Marketing, Operations, and Business Development.

Learning Outcomes and Benefits:

1. Gain practical experience in business development, marketing, community outreach, or event design and execution.
2. Develop skills in communication, teamwork, and project management.
3. Network with professionals in the arts, profit, and nonprofit sectors.

Education and Experience Requirements:

1. High school juniors or seniors or college students.
2. Interest in the arts, business development, event management, or marketing.
3. Strong communication and organizational skills.

Art has the power to create change! Don't miss the chance to contribute to Marblehead's vibrant arts community while gaining valuable experience for your future endeavors!

Join us and make a difference., apply today: president@marbleheadfestival.org

The Marblehead Festival of Arts Inc. is a not-for-profit organization established in 1962 to promote and foster artistic events and activities in Marblehead. Today, MFoA produces a summer Arts Festival, sponsors year-round events, and contributes to local organizations and art projects. Learn more at <https://www.marbleheadfestival.org/>.